

Excess or unusable district-owned equipment and supplies will be disposed of at the discretion of the board. Unused, inoperable, or outdated technology equipment will be disposed of through donations to non-profit organizations, recycling, or public sale whenever possible. If these options are unsuccessful or not feasible, equipment will be disposed of at appropriate sites in an approved manner.

Software no longer being used by the district will be given away or destroyed depending on licensing restrictions.

Reviewed: 9/12, 4/2015