AGREEMENT FORM

Student: _____ DOB: _____

School: _____ Grade: _____

Date: _____ Date of last evaluation/re-evaluation: _____

Name of parent(s)/decision maker: _____

Name of school representative: _____

Position of school representative: _____

Special education laws require a re-evaluation of a child with an exceptionality at least once every three years, unless the school and the parent(s), or other legally authorized education decision maker, of the student agree that a re-evaluation is unnecessary.

The above named parent(s)/decision maker and school representative agree that a re-evaluation for the above named student is not necessary at this time for any services the child receives, and therefore no re-evaluation will be conducted. Both parties understand that a re-evaluation may be requested by either party at any time in the future.

RE-EVALUATION NOT NEEDED
AGREEMENT FORM Process

1. All special education service providers and parent must be in agreement that it is not necessary at this time to re-determine eligibility for special education services
2. If any provider needs to review eligibility then the team should re-evaluate.
3. Only the administrator or designee shall sign off on the RNN (Re-evaluation Not Needed) form for the school.
4. This form must be completed prior to the anniversary date for the re-evaluation.
5. The team may determine no re-evaluation is needed at the annual IEP meeting prior to the re-evaluation date.
6. No other paperwork is needed to document this discussion.
